

SISKIYOU ARTISTS ASSOCIATION
GENERAL MEETING OF JUNE 27, 2010
LAKE SHASTINA COMMUNITY CENTER

The meeting was called to order by President Suzanne Mamedalin at 1:58 p.m. All present were welcomed. One guest introduced himself as Mr. Weber, Lee's husband.

There were no minutes from last month.

Suzanne noted that our treasury was doing well and that Ron Richards had donated $500 to SAA from the workshop he held.

Scholarships will be granted to three students this year, and they will be featured and honored at our annual show.

Hostess Anne Hill gave thanks to Pauline Walcott and Lee Weber for their treats this month and mentioned that Sue Blackmore, Donna Sanders, and Joyce Kyle were due thanks for the treats they brought last month.

Suzanne asked the membership to vote on whether to have a critique or demonstration for our July meeting. A majority voted for a critique.

Suzanne also noted that the plein-air painting sessions have been cancelled due to lack of interest.

Joy Price reminded members of the annual show requirements and passed sign-up sheets for members to volunteer for various jobs. Joy also announced the show and sale of Judith's work via the combined efforts of SAC and COS.

Marilyn Ellis noted that August 12 is the last newsletter she will be doing. She will not be available at all after October, so someone needs to learn from her now. Roberta and Pauline will continue putting the newsletter together (i.e. take care of the printing, stamping, etc.).

Anne Hill's position will also be open next year.

Diana Callahan made a motion to adjourn, seconded by Barbara Stewart. The meeting was adjourned at 2:13 p.m.

Suzanne introduced Belinda Hansen as our guest critique artist on 3-D pieces. Belinda chose as her show favorite Linda Cosner's War Ship and Lee Weber's Redwood Forest. By popular vote winning artists were: Suzanne Mamedalin's Fish Lips and Al Groncki's (untitled goose taking flight).

Respectfully submitted,
Suzanne Nelson, Secretary
